

Please reject new regulations. Media company consolidation is diametrically opposed to a free and informed citizenry and negatively impacts our ability to make informed choices. It will result in loss of local control and diversity of opinion. This is not about better service for consumers. This is about big business and the bottom line.